

BLOND Haired ORANGE skinned

Blond Haired, orange skinned

He said he was going to win

We did not believe it

Blond Haired, orange skinned

He said he wanted to build a wall

Between Tacos and burgers
We thought he was really crazy

Blond Haired, orange skinned

He said he would make America great again

We thought he was just nostalgic

Blond Haired, orange skinned

He said he would be the president of the Americans

Now we know he was right
